

30 DAYS TO CLOSE OUT

All Records Broken in the Enormous Clothing Sales for the Past 5 Days!

Every Garment Has Got to Go Regardless of Cost.

Not A Suit or Overcoat to be Kept If Low Prices Will Move Them.

The tremendous low prices of Suits and Overcoats here have brought thousands to our store and still they come and buy and come back again the second time to buy and why not? The public knows that one-half off and more on clothing is the chance of a lifetime and so they appreciate it.

Merchants are already clamoring to buy our goods, knowing full well the less than wholesale prices we are giving. But merchants must wait. The public will have the first show; the merchants come after. Don't delay! Thousands of wonderful bargains in Suits, Overcoats and Trousers for Man and Boy still left.

ARMY AND NAVY AIDS TO THE PRESIDENT WHO DIRECT WHITE HOUSE SOCIAL AFFAIRS

President Taft has completed the appointment of his personal aids from the army and navy, the staff consisting of only five officers. The aids are Captain Archibald Butt, U. S. A.; Captain Daniel Van Voorhis, U. S. A.; Lieutenant Commander Leigh C. Palmer, U. S. N.; and Colonel Spencer Cosby, U. S. A. Captain Butt has been the President's personal aid ever since the inauguration last March and accompanied him on his long journey to the Pacific coast and through the South.

Ready Wit.
Many good stories are told of the "Poet" Craig, for so many years a familiar figure on the London cricket and football grounds. On one occasion Craig began at the Oval, "Gentlemen, this is my favorite ground," when some one interrupted: "Craig, you said that at Leyton last week."
"Yes, sir," returned the unabashed poet, "and I shall say it at Canterbury next week. The ground on which the noble game is being played before an assembly of intelligent and enlightened purchasers of my poetry is always my favorite ground for the time being."
But Craig knew how to keep an impertinent interrupter in his place. Once a stout, red faced man broke in on one of his speeches with: "Craig, you're making a lot of money out of fools. When are you going to set up a 'pub'?"
"When you come and live next door to me, sir," was the answer, and the red faced man turned crimson.
Another man at the Oval once said: "Now, Craig, tell us how much you're made out of bad poetry."
"More, I venture to say, sir, than you're made out of bad manners!"—London Scraps.

Poker For the Husband.
Returning home from Atlantic City, a Frankford man drew a photograph carefully from his pocket and showed it to his wife. Said he, "There's a man who's in love with you."
It was not a good picture, one of those cheap pinup photographs. The husband had not been in a condition to be well "taken," and there was little likeness. His wife looked at the picture for several minutes, very much puzzled. Finally she spoke up: "Why, it's Jim! Where did you get that? And what did he tell you?"—Philadelphia Times.

To Tame Him.
"So you're going to introduce baseball among the prisoners? I don't approve. What will become of discipline?"
"If a man gets too obstreperous," replied the warden confidently, "we'll make him umpire."—Philadelphia Ledger.

A Matter of Hours.
Bangs—What is the difference between a woman's waist club and a man's poker club? Wanga—Why, in one you get home to dinner and in the other to breakfast.—Newark Star.

Advantage of Education.
"Are you satisfied with the results of the course, which your daughter followed at college?"
"Perfectly satisfied. She is going to marry one of the professors."

Excesses in youth are drafts upon old age, payable about thirty years after date.—Chicago News.

Crawford

Cooking-Ranges

Miss Hope, who was Principal of the Boston Cooking School for 17 years, says:

"I consider the Crawford the best of them all. It uses less coal and gives a more even heat than any range I ever saw."

The Crawford has more improvements than all other ranges combined: Single Damper (patented); Patented Dock-Ash Grates; Cup-Joint Oven Flues; Asbestos-Back Oven; Reliable Oven Indicator.
